To Mrs. E. W. Burdett.
OF LANCASTER, KY.

SPEAK TO ME MILDLY.

Poetry and Music.

BY

W. J. LANDRAM.

CINCINNATI.

Published by F. W. RAUCH. 82 West Fourth St.

Louisville. D. P. FAULDS & CO. | Boston. RUSSELL & TOLMAN. | Cleveland. S. BRAINARD & CO.

SPEAK TO ME MILDLY

POETRY AND MUSIC

by

W. J. LANDRAM.

ANDANTE.

47 — 4

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1859 by F.W. RAUCH in the Clerk's office of the South'n Dist C. of O.

VOICE.

PIANO.

1, Speak to me mild - ly, Like one from a - bove, And tell me how wild - ly, Thy heart beats with love, How true are its throb - bings, How deep are its streams, How 2.

Speak to me dearly,
In words as of yore;
When loving, we early
Link'd hands on the shore,
Ere once on the billow,
Ne'er fearing the gale,
With hope for our pillow,
Our bark we set sail.

3.

Speak to me sweetly,
As o'er the blue wave
With hearts swelling meetly
The dangers we brave:
Cling closely, keep steady,
Our home is in view,
Where loved ones are ready,
To welcome the true.

A. L. Froelich. Eng.

47 — 4